

MagConnect Pro M Dual C-Clamp Mount for iPad 9.7 6th | 5th Generation

Carbon fiber dual arm C-Clamp Mount Bundle with detachable, waterproof aXtion Pro M Case with built-in heavy-duty screen protector

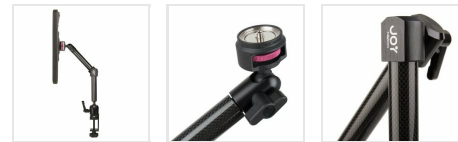

SKU: MWA616M
MSRP: $289.99

Built with lightweight dual carbon fiber arms, this C-Clamp Mount securely displays your tablet by attaching to a round or flat surface of up to 1.67" such as an office desk or medical carts. The spherical joints allow for 360° rotation of the tablet.

The aXtion Pro M Case is ideal for any workplace and environment with its military-grade shockproof certification (MIL-STD-810G) and IP68 waterproof rating. This rugged case has a built-in heavy-duty screen protector. The industrial grade structure protects your tablet from any external particles such as snow, sand, and dirt, from damaging your device. Built with a lock port, you can easily install a Kensington Cable Lock to secure your device to an immovable object.

This multi-functional case includes a removable MagConnect mounting plate that allows the case to be compatible with any VESA 100 mounting system. With the MagConnect plate, the case is pairable with any of The Joy Factory's MagConnect compatible mounts. This case can be used with the Universal Shoulder Strap or Hand Strap for mobile users.
